I will always remember Mrs. Myszelow (as I knew her) and later, Mrs. Wolfram - coming home from work, looking beautiful in her dress work clothes and high heels, with groceries in hand- which included all of Scott's (my friend's) favorite snack foods- which were everyone's favorite. She had a smile and kind words for all of her son's friends. Her home was an awesome, welcoming place to be and I loved spending time there. My memories of summers around her pool and even a trip to Barnegat Light, NJ are some of my fondest. I am fortunate that I had the opportunity to know her. She was an amazing woman and I am sure her family will truly miss her. Rest in peace.
