(May 17, 1943 - April 19, 2023)

Henry "Hank" Scheible

May 17, 1943 ~ April 19, 2023

Henry "Hank" Scheible, a life-long resident of New Windsor, entered into rest on Wednesday, April 19, 2023, at St. Luke's Hospital in Newburgh at the age of 79 with his loving family by his side.

The son of the late Otto and Loretta (Bulson) Scheible was born

May 17, 1943, in Newburgh, NY. He was one of five children. Henry graduated from St. Patrick's High School in Newburgh. After that, he decided to travel through Europe, visiting relatives in his father's hometown of Beilstein, Germany, where he met his wife, Helga, of 59 years. They married in Germany on September 12, 1964 and then moved to New Windsor, NY. The family, which Henry cherished, grew to include four daughters and nine grandchildren.

His career began in Germany working as an apprentice in the meat industry for the Idler company. After he returned to the states, Henry joined his father's business at Newburgh Packing Corporation, where he later became owner and President. He built an empire with his wife Helga by his side. Newburgh

Packing was well-known and respected for their Temple Hill brand hot dogs. Henry retired after 60 successful years in business.

Henry was a proud husband, father, and grandfather. His devotion to family and community was a core value throughout his entire life that passed on to his family.

He took pride volunteering in many community leadership roles,

including, Temple Hill School PTO

President and New Windsor Girls Softball Coach. Other community involvement included New Windsor

Rotary Club, New Windsor Republican Committee, Town of New

Windsor Past Planning Board Member and Zoning Board Member. At any time, any local club or organization could count on Henry for fundraising help, such as donations for state and local police events, boy scouts, girl scouts, food pantries, and town concerts. Hank was also a founding member of Stupido

Wine Club, a bond of friendships that lasted the rest of his years. Of his many hobbies, he truly enjoyed golfing, boating on the Hudson, traveling back to Germany and other countries with his wife and close friends, teaching his grandchildren to drive, and most of all, spending time surrounded by his family whom he loved and took great pride in.

Henry is survived by his loving wife, Helga; his daughters, Susan and husband, Anthony, of New Windsor, Karen and husband, Dan, of Washington, DC, Doreen and fiancée, Carlos, of New Windsor, and Denise of White Lake, MI; nine proud grandchildren, James, Kaitlin, Brenden, Kelly, Nicholas, Shane, Aidan, Henry and Rose; his brother Walter and wife, Nancy, of Rochester, sister Anne and husband, Chuck, of Timonium MD, and sister in law, Deborah of Warwick, along with numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents, Otto and Loretta Scheible, and brothers Richard and Karl.

Henry's family will receive their friends on Monday, April 24 from 4pm to 7pm at Brooks Funeral Home, 481 Gidney Ave, Newburgh, NY. A Catholic mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 25 at 10 am at Sacred Heart Church in Newburgh. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery in New Windsor.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to the Alzheimer's Association at alz.org in Henry's name.
