Felicia A (Bristow Ruffin) Amos of Newburgh, NY passed away at Montefiore Hospital on Tuesday, January 10, 2023 with her family by her side. Born on August 5, 1971, she was the daughter of Gwendolyn Ruffin and Charles Bristow. She was a wife of 30 years and a loving mother to her three children.

Felicia spent 20 years in nursing at Fishkill Correctional Facility. Prior to Fishkill she provided care for patients at St. Luke's Hospital with various demographics. Of her work history Felicia spoke fondly of her work in Pediatrics and her love for children continued beyond her career. Her humanitarianism was felt throughout her workplace; Coworkers became family and her presence invoked a comforting and familiar environment.

Felicia's passions revolved around family and children. She was viewed as the matriarch and enjoyed hosting holiday gatherings and watching the children of the community grow. Her compassion welcomed many into her home where the food flowed continuously, infused with laughter and love. Felicia's devotion for helping others extended beyond her occupation and her selflessness was bestowed upon all.

Felicia is survived by her loving husband, Loueverette Amos; Three children, Jasmine (De'Shawn) Wilson, Javante Amos, and Jayden Amos; Granddaughter Arya Wilson; Her parents, Gwendolyn Ruffin and Charles Bristow; Maternal grandmother, Catherine Ruffin; Four siblings, Vincent Bristow, Alegra Bristow, Lavar Ruffin, Tomara (Ken) Ruffin-Keyser; and numerous cousins, uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Amos will have a visitation 10:00 a.m.-12:00 Noon, Friday, January 20, 2023 at Rhodes Funeral Home Chapel, 18 Lake Street, Newburgh, NY. Funeral services 12:00 noon at the chapel. Interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, New Windsor, NY 12553. Professional services entrusted to Rhodes Funeral Homes, 18 Lake Street, Newburgh, NY 12553.
