He was the sixth child and third son born to Zachary D. Patsalos and Constance Patsalos (nee Mingas). Pano enjoyed a wonderful childhood in a neighborhood of large families. His elementary education began when he walked to the Liberty Street School and continued on throughout the Newburgh School System where he was an excellent student.

This commenced his long time professional career in the field of law. Pano had the privilege of practicing in both the civil and criminal arenas to include private practice, as a prosecutor for the Orange County District Attorney's Office and City of Newburgh Assistant Corporation Counsel. Pano advanced to judicial positions and after serving as Town Justice in the Town of Newburgh ultimately served as an Orange County Court Judge, where his judicial skills were demonstrated on a daily basis addressing countless criminal cases. Judge Patsalos was admired and respected by his peers as well as attorneys representing both the State and defendants along with the entire legal community.

In addition, Pano had the opportunity to serve as President of both Orange County Bar and City of Newburgh Bar Associations. He was a member of the New York Magistrates Association.

He met his beloved wife June (nee Carry) in 1963. They wed in 1966 and formed a bond that lasted for over 56 years. Pano and June were a united, strong and loving team.

Pano is survived by his wife at home; stepson John (Jack) Clark and his wife Yoly; granddaughters, Jessica (Julio), Kristin (John) and Chelsea; great-granddaughter, Sophia; along with many loving nieces and nephews who have fond and wonderful memories of times spent with Uncle Pano.
